CUFF STUFF — Redundancy is a wonderful tool for sneaking out of embarrassing situations and selling products.

At one period in my life I worked in a warehouse, which housed mostly windmills. Along with the windmills, of course, were spare parts.

There was an assistant manager in this warehouse, who (1) didn't like me, (2) didn't think he could be wrong and (3) if proven wrong would use any means at his power to modify and excuse his wrongness.

My duties, among others, included filling orders to jobbers and dealers. On one occasion when the manager (who also was my father, which may have been the reason for (1) above) was out of town, the assistant manager sent down an order for some 7/16-inch bolts.

I know, because of having turned down earlier orders, that we had no 7/16-inch bolts. I returned the order to the office with an explanatory notation.

The assistant manager put in an appearance in the warehouse, post-haste. "I know we have 7/16-inch bolts out here," he said.

"We don't," I stubbornly insisted.

"Let me show you," he offered, condescendingly.

We went to the area where the bolts were kept. The bins were not labeled according to size, and the assistant manager unhesitatingly removed a 5/8-inch bolt from the bin to show me we certainly had what was wanted. I told him it was a 5/8-inch bolt, and he measured the darn thing with calipers. Finally convinced, he excused himself with:

"Well, that's an awfully big 5/8-inch."

I don't know what ever happened to this gentleman, but I have a suspicion that he found employment with an advertising agency.

Possibly the hucksters for the company that sells the "Big, 16-Ounce Bottle" of something or other.

Or he could have gone to work for the company that advertises "small sizes for the petite woman." I shudder to think what might happen to an adman who suggested "huge sizes for the petite woman," or for that matter, "petite sizes for the huge woman."

Before I became unalterably married (my wife forbids television in our home) I made a study of television sets. I wanted to see the difference between a 21-inch screen and a "Big, Big 21-Inch Screen." I couldn't see any difference, but I wear glasses. Perhaps my eyes needed re-testing and new windshields.

I could go on about this redundant advertising, but the gentlemen in The Telegraph advertising department insist advertising pays my wages. I'm sure they're wrong, but I'm also carefully cautious.

Mild Spell Brief

Mercury to Start Dive To Zero

By The Associated Press

A mild spell that moved into Illinois over the weekend sent temperatures into the 20s and 30s today, but it appeared the warmup would be brief.

The mercury was expected to slide to zero in the north tonight and range down to 10 to 15 in southern counties. The five-day forecast indicated temperatures will average 10 degrees below normal.

Light snow dusted northern areas Sunday and today, and the State Highway Division warned of scattered patches of packed snow on roads north of a line through Davenport and Joliet.

Little warming was seen Tuesday through Saturday.

Temperatures Sunday ranged from the high teens into the middle and upper 20s. Belleville was a warm exception with 31 degrees. Early morning lows generally were scattered through the teens, although it was 5 above in Rantoul and 6 in Rockford.

6 Now Seek GOP Nod For Senate

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The Republican scramble for the U.S. Senate nomination became a six-man race today as former State Treasurer Warren Wright and John R. Harrell of Louisville filed nominating petitions.

Both candidates submitted their petitions on the last day for entering the April primary election. After today, candidates will have five days to withdraw their petitions.

Previously entered in the GOP Senate race were John Lewis of Marshall, William Rentschler of Lake Forest, John A. Ricker of Glenview and Samuel Witwer of Riverside.

The secretary of state's office announced that Gen Douglas MacArthur has withdrawn his name from the Illinois presidential preference primary.

MacArthur was entered in the Republican lists last week without his consent by Lar Daly of Chicago.

Petitions notarized by Daly placing Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York in the GOP presidential voting were received today by the secretary of state's office. Rockefeller has announced he is not a presidential candidate.

Diehards Still Hold Out Today

Resent DeGaulle's Self-Determination Policy for Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — Armed die-hard French rightists held out today behind makeshift barricades in the heart of Algiers.

Dawn found the capital quiet but tense in the wake of Sunday night's fighting and panic that left 21 persons dead and 153 wounded.

The army seemed firmly in control, except for two pockets where about 1,000 insurgents were holed up.

The uprising against President Charles de Gaulle's self-determination policy pitted Frenchmen against Frenchmen in Algeria, already bleeding from a five-year revolt of nationalists.

A stiff military censorship was imposed on outgoing news dispatches, but there was no objection to calling Sunday's rising a fight to keep Algeria French.

Paratroops Brought In

Trucks of paratroopers lined Avenue Pasteur along the western flank of the barricaded areas. The holdouts showed signs of their all-night watch as they silently stared at passers-by who hurried along in the bleak dawn.

Despite a military order banning assembly of more than three persons, groups gathered around the barricaded area and stared grimly at the insurgents who had hoisted tattered French tricolors.

Here and there merchants who shuttered their windows when the rioting broke out Sunday night began to open their stores.

The three Algiers morning daily newspapers, all censored, sold quickly. They printed dispatches reporting minor demonstrations of sympathy in Oran and Constantine.

Rebels Sing

Inside the barricaded area rebellious groups sang a rousing Marseillaise.

The Government Building on Forum Hill, scene of Sunday night's clash, looked like an armed camp. Steel-helmeted police and riot squads spread out army rations in the lobbies and corridors.

The Echo d'Alger said in a front page editorial that "French blood has been spilled climaxing the disillusionment of which we are drinking the bitter chalice for so many years." Alain de Serigny, publisher of the newspaper, took part in Sunday's demonstration.

The army said that among the victims were 10 policemen killed and 80 wounded.

Leaders of the rebellious Frenchmen, who had counted on army sympathy and support, admitted they were fighting a losing battle. The supreme commander of the French forces in Algeria stood stoutly behind De Gaulle and warned "the mutiny will not win."

A band of several hundred insurgents held out on the grounds of Algiers University in the center of the capital and in the adjacent Rue Michelet for a last-ditch stand after police and troops broke up mobs of demonstrators that swelled to 20,000.

The diehards defied an appeal (See ALGIERS—Page 6)

Would-Be Candidates Get Little Encouragement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders controlling major blocs of party power remained uncommitted on a party nominee today after a weekend parade of presidential hopefuls.

With former President Harry S. Truman setting a "give 'em hell" pace, four major and several minor contenders for top place on the ticket tried out their personalities and oratorical persuasion on 2,500 party members at a $100 a plate fund-raising dinner here.

The upshot seemed to be that nobody started any bandwagons rolling. This was confirmed by a check of the men in a position to control the big-vote delegations. Although there were reports that sentiment for Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) might be strong among prospective delegates, there was no jelling of sentiment at the top.

Cold-Shoulders Stu

Truman, who retains strong influence with a minority segment of the party, dealt something of a blow to the incipient candidacy of Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), when he told the group he has no commitments on any presidential aspirant. Symington has been counting heavily on Truman's support.

Truman also took what appeared to be an indirect swipe at Adlai Stevenson, the man he wanted as a candidate in 1952 and didn't want in 1956. Stevenson won the nomination but lost the election both times.

Truman said that, in addition to having the necessary qualifications for office, the man he supports is going to have "the ability as well to arouse the support of the people to vote him into office."

Sent Message

Stevenson, who did not attend the dinner, sent a message in delegation into the convention from Pennsylvania, said he isn't making any decision between possible candidates now.

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California insisted all he wants is to be let alone as a favorite son candidate. He said that if he gets this designation in the state's June 7 primary there will be plenty of

Use Drill In Mine Rescue Try

COALBROOK, South Africa (AP) — A high speed drill today bored steadily toward 440 men trapped deep in a coal mine since Thursday.

Fresh rockslides clogged the main shaft with tons of earth, halting underground rescue efforts. Mine officials ordered an emergency shaft sunk to try to get food and air to the men if they are still alive.

Manager of the Clydesville colliery, where the massive rockfall occurred, rushed the drill here from an iron mine in the northern Transvaal.

The drill which bores a hole 15 inches in diameter, penetrated 80 feet within a couple of hours, then struck a rock formation. Engineers estimated it would take 40 hours to reach the area where the men are trapped.

Not Guessing About Soviet Might: Gates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. said today the revised U.S. evaluation of military intelligence about the Soviet Union is based on actual knowledge of Soviet capabilities, not guesses as to its intentions.

Gates, who touched off a wide discussion on the subject with his testimony before a House Defense Appropriations subcommittee last week, indicated he feels his earlier remarks have been misinterpreted.

"We have never been relying on what their intentions will be in reference to specific actions," Gates told the House Committee on Science and Astronautics, now reviewing the U.S. space program.

'Intelligence Better'

"Our intelligence information has improved. We have better information available on a variety of subjects from a variety of sources. We have a refined and better set of facts, and from them we have a more refined and better understanding of what the Russian intercontinental ballistic missile program may be."

Gates did not state flatly that his position on the changed method of evaluating intelligence has been misinterpreted. But when asked if the United States is now basing its estimates on Soviet intentions, rather than capabilities, he replied: "Some are interpreting it that way."

'Position Strong'

Gates repeated his conviction that the basic U.S. defense position is strong enough to discourage any aggression. Granting Soviet superiority in rocket boosters, he told the committee: "Missiles are only one way of doing this terrible thing. We have a number of ways."

The Gates testimony was another round in the continuing debate over whether the Soviet Union will have more ready-to-go missiles than this country in any period through 1963, and what the answer to that question means.

"They might. I think it is doubtful, but they might. But in no way will we have an over-all deterrent gap," said Secretary of the Air Force Dudley C. Sharp.

Over-all deterrent strength is the important point, Sharp said Sunday in a television interview. "It isn't whether they have a few more missiles than we have. The important thing is that our total over-all posture is such that they wouldn't dare attack without receiving such a formidable attack themselves that they would never want to do it," he added.

How big might the missile gap be?

Very Small

If there is one, Sharp said, it will be smaller than the 3-1 superiority which former Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy said a year ago the Soviets might move to in long-range missile superiority. Sharp declined to give a more specific estimate.

The Pentagon's view that there is no deterrent gap got support Sunday from Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.). He said in a radio interview "I do not agree that there is this great missile gap."

Saltonstall, senior Republican on the Senate Armed Services Committee, said "we are ahead of the Russians in the general opinion on certain parts of the missile problem. They are ahead of us in the question of thrust."

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) Senate Democratic leader, mentioned what he called "the missile gap" in strongly criticizing Gates. Johnson was out of town last week when Gates said on Capitol

Chicago Police Face Ax

Phelan Says Some Top Men to Go

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago police, shaken by charges of dishonesty, politics and corruption, today awaited another promised revamping of the top ranks.

Acting Police Commissioner Kyran Phelan, who stepped up Saturday following the resignation of Commissioner Timothy O'Connor, said some top police officials will be replaced. He would not elaborate.

Phelan's comments came as a five-man committee appointed by Mayor Richard J. Daley prepared to convene for the selection of a successor to O'Connor who Saturday quit the post he held for nine years. O'Connor gave ill health as the reason.

His resignation came in the midst of a police burglary ring scandal in which a burglar accused 13 policemen of either aiding his burglaries or extracting bribes to cover them up. Seventeen policemen so far have been suspended and charged with criminal offenses.

Meets Wednesday

The committee, headed by Orland W. Wilson, dean of the school of criminology of the University of California at Berkeley, will hold

Billy Graham Gets Too Big A Response

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—Billy Graham carries the word of the Bible to more of Ghana's people today after a triumphal opening before 14,000 in Accra Stadium.

Graham, who arrived from Liberia Sunday for the second leg of his crusade in Africa, will remain in Ghana until Tuesday when he has his first meeting with Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah.

At his opening address, Graham told his colorful garbed audience they were listening to "the voice of the Holy Spirit."

He assured his hearers he was no politician but a preacher of the gospel. Jesus Christ, he said, belonged as much to Africa as to any other continent.

Divorce 'Pressure' Blamed In Woman's Wrongdoing

Lee County Circuit Judge Robert L. Bracken, Tuesday, will sentence two men convicted of armed robbery, and rule on the petition for probation of the woman member of the trio, who staged two recent Lee County hold-ups.

In testimony taken today concerning Harriett Hammond, Chicago, it was stated that prior to her recent criminal activity she had never been arrested. Mrs. Hammond is a divorcee, the mother of two children, who after attending two years at DePaul University had worked as a bookkeeper in Chicago until the time of her arrest.

Mrs. Hammond said she met

Bales, said the state would not resist probation for Mrs. Hammond, should the court grant her petition.

The two men, Hayes and Stonecipher, have served a previous sentence in Iowa for armed robbery. They served almost four years of an indeterminate 25 year sentence.

Three Sterling businessmen testified to the good conduct of Hayes from the time of his release in 1956 until he left Sterling in July 1959.

Stonecipher lived in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, from the time of his release until his arrest in December. He had worked as an electrician, but was unemployed at the time the crime was committed. Stonecipher is married and the father of four children.

Donald Hayes in July 1959.

The defense counsel, Lloyd J. Scriven, contended that Mrs. Hammond during the last four months had not been the woman she had been all of her life previously.

The counsel contended this was due to the pressure of going through divorce proceedings, and the love relationship she had with Hayes.

Rochelle School Board Discusses Counseling

ROCHELLE — The Rochelle Township High School Board of Directors recently discussed the school's rapidly expanding guidance and counseling program, okayed issuance of anticipation warrants to meet the January payroll, and announced a $2,000 legacy to the school.

Miss Kathryn Parks and Harold Maris, who are in charge of the guidance program, appeared before the board and outlined the numerous aptitude and intelligence tests now required in guiding students in their selection of high school courses and careers.

Tests

They said that these tests begin with eighth grade pupils, before they enroll as freshmen, and continue through the senior year. They explained that this testing is only one part of the guidance program, which also includes individual counseling of students who encounter difficulties with grades or with problems affecting school work.

Enrollment Increase

Both Miss Parks and Maris said that because of the steady increase in high school enrollment they need to spend more time in guidance work, and, since they carry class loads in addition to counseling, they feel it is becoming necessary that they be given more time for guidance work or for additional counselors to be assigned. No action was taken.

The board studied the financial report for the six-month period of July 1 to Jan. 1 and passed a resolution to issue anticipation warrants for the amounts needed to meet the January payroll.

Leroy Peterson, superintendent of schools, announced that the will of Emma Kern, Rochelle resident who died Dec. 13, named Rochelle Township High School a beneficiary of $2,000.

The board decided to see if there was a special phase of education in which Mrs. Kern had been particularly interested and to use the money accordingly.

Ogle County Art Show
Planned March 2-6Ag and Home Ec Council
Committee Making PlansBy MRS. PEARL BARNES
Ogle Co. Home Adviser

OREGON—The second Ogle County Town and Country Art Show is planned for March 2-6 in the Farm Bureau Auditorium.

A committee named by the Agriculture and Home Economics Extension Council met Jan. 18 to make plans. Present were Mrs. L. D. Carmichael, Don Smith, Milo Grafstrom, Rochelle; Mrs. Edwin Zumdahl, Mrs. Quimba Davis, Clare Bradford, Oregon, and the Extension personnel, Hubert Fulkerson, farm adviser; Frances Reeverts, assistant home adviser; Charles Hammil, assistant farm adviser and me.

More details about the Art Show will be announced shortly.

Mrs. Joseph Bissman, Rockford, will teach 25 Ogle homemakers the craft of laminating with fiberglass and Thursday in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

Mrs. Bissman is a craft instructor at the Ken Rock Community Center Rockford.

Women who take this lesson will not only learn the craft but will be trained to teach others in their units and communities.

More than 700 different food additives are used in processing food commercially and in household cookery.

Do you realize that when you add salt, sugar, vinegar, spices to food, you are adding food additives? Of course, many of the 700 are less familiar and more "chemical."

Food additives are making food more convenient, more satisfying, more wholesome, more nutritious and of much greater variety.

The following is a list of the twelve types of food additives and some of their uses:

1. Food preservatives. Salt is our oldest example. Benzoic acid or sodium benzoate have been in use a long time. Newer is sorbic acid, effective as an inhibitor of mold.

A recent addition to this group are the tetracycline antibiotics used commercially in poultry and fish processing.

2. Food antioxidants. This group prevents oxygen of the air causing deterioration. Ascorbic acid

(vitamin C) is added to meats and fruits. Antioxidants are used in food containing fats such as shortenings, potato chips, whole milk powder and ice cream.

3. Food sequestrants. This group includes texturizers and physical stabilizers. Without them we would not have evaporated milk, and many other foods common today.

4. Food colors. Sixteen synthetic colors are certified for food by the Food and Drug Administration. Annatto is a color used in dairy products and meats such as bologna and frankfurters. Carotene (pro-vitamin A) found in such abundance in carrots is sometimes used as a food coloring.

5. Food non-nutritive sweeteners. Forms of saccharine and the cyclamates are used to sweeten foods without added calories. We are seeing much greater use today of these sweeteners in canned fruits, gelatins, jellies, salad dressings and baked goods.

6. Food emulsifiers. The old adage that water and oil do not mix is misleading. In the presence of a suitable emulsifier, they do mix and stay mixed. Ice creams, salad dressings and shortenings, perform better because of emulsifiers.

7. Food bleaching and maturing agents. Examples are chemicals to bleach flour, and aged cheese.

8. Food buffers, acids and alkalis. Homemakers as well as the processor often use these—soda, cream of tartar, vinegar, citric acid. Each is used to control the acid-alkaline balance so that flavor, texture and cooking responses produce the desired culinary results.

9. Food nutrient supplements. A total of 43 chemicals are used in this group including the vitamins, minerals and a few others like iodides and amino acids.

10. Food flavoring agents. This is the largest group, including over 300. Every homemaker uses many of these in food preparation. It includes the essential oils, aromatics and spices.

11. Miscellaneous. This group includes yeasts, the firming agents for pickles, canned fruits and vegetables.

Next I plan to write about some of the problems concerning food additives and additive legislation.

Education Vitally Important Today, Explains Dr. Vest

Dr. Eugene Vest, head of the department of English at the Chicago campus of the University of Illinois, was the speaker at the Dixon Woman's Club Saturday afternoon at Loveland House. Dr. Vest's subject was "Youth and the Future." He emphasized the important part that education plays in the training of young people for the problems of the world.

Dr. Vest compared the educational systems of foreign countries and the United States. He discussed the weaknesses and the strong points of the various educational policies. Mass education in the United States makes a problem for the best students, but that is being corrected at the higher levels.

The separation of the mentally gifted at an early age in the European countries leaves a great group of potential leaders without the proper training, since it is a recognized fact in the United States that a high grade average in school is not the only thing that makes a successful person.

He said that people in the United States read far less than those in Europe and the Far East. Book stores which sell only books are very rare in this country, but abroad such book "stalls" do a good business. People on Japanese trains will almost all be reading either a book, a newspaper or a magazine.

Dr. Vest feels that people who are not educated at all are as though living in a cage. They have no knowledge of history and the past; they have no ability to study the future; they have no depth or height to their ideas; they live only in the immediate present.

He closed his talk by saying that the future is bright indeed for young people; however they must be prepared. There are all kinds of problems to be solved and the careers are waiting, with an infinite number of new occupations.

Mrs. Robert Hartridge and her committee served refreshments.

Try to Find Wreckage of Plane in Gulf

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Navy today planned to probe the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico for wreckage of a National Airlines plane that carried 42 persons to their death two months ago.

Investigators hoped the wreckage might tell them whether a bomb explosion sent the DC7B hurtling into the water Nov. 16. They also sought to determine if a missing Tampa man was one of the 29 persons whose bodies have not yet been found.

The missing man, William A. Taylor, 69, was a friend of Robert Vernon Spears who was listed as a heavily insured passenger on the plane but turned up alive in Phoenix, Ariz., last week.

The FBI said the 65-year-old naturopath, who took out $100,000 flight insurance in his own name, had blasting equipment in his luggage when he was arrested.

Taylor's divorced wife said she believed Spears may have hypnotized Taylor into taking his place on the doomed plane.

Two Navy vessels headed toward the tip of Louisiana to investigate an object, located by sound gear, under several hundred feet of water.

Diving experts said there was no way to tell in advance what the object was. It might be the plane. It might be just the hulk of an old ship.

Police Report Minor Wreck

Robert Sawyer, 18, 2023 Third St., Saturday was arrested for careless driving, after an accident at Hennepin Avenue and Boyd Street.

Police said Sawyer was driving a car west which struck a car driven north by Louise D. Quick, 37, Polio.

Marine League Meets Wednesday

The Dixon Area Detachment, Marine Corps League, will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Navy Club rooms. The meeting will be open to Marines and former Marines not now members of the detachment. Refreshments will be served.

Police, Fire Exams Tuesday

Examinations to qualify applicants for positions on the Dixon police and fire departments will be given, Tuesday, at 7 p.m., in the City Council Room at City Hall.

VFW Drill Team to Meet

The Dixon VFW drill team will hold practice at 7:30 p.m. today in the post's club rooms.

CHALLENGES THE GOVERNOR—Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley gestures Saturday as he comments on a statement by Illinois Gov. William G. Stratton regarding one of the biggest scandals in the history of the Chicago police department. At left is Police Commissioner Timothy J. O'Connor, who resigned in face of the scandal. Daley challenged the governor to meet him in a debate, stating, "We'll compare the record of Chicago and the record of Illinois." (AP Wirephoto)

Steel Dispute Goes on in Small Way

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Pittsburgh Steel Co., the only major steel producer still lacking a labor contract with the United Steelworkers, has agreed with the union to operate under an extension of the old pact.

The agreement removed the threat of a strike at Pittsburgh Steel's six plants Tuesday when a Taft-Hartley injunction expires. The injunction sent employees of most of the major steel companies in the country back to work last Nov. 7 after a 116-day strike. All of the other big companies since have signed new agreements with the U.S.W.

Pittsburgh Steel, which employs about 8,000 U.S.W. members, has been holding out for a reduction in incentive pay rates. Present pay schedules were not disclosed.

Employees of Maitrup Steel Co. of Beaver Falls, Pa.; Acme Steel Co. of Chicago; and the Joseph T. Ryerson & Sons division of Inland Steel Co. also turned down their companies' last offers.

The four are the only ones still at odds with the union out of 96 steel companies that were named as defendants in the original injunction action.

Pittsburgh Steel operates plants at Allentown and Monessen, Pa.; Akron and Warren, Ohio; Worcester, Mass.; and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Frank Better After Miscarriage

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Mrs. Julian A. Frank, lovely widow of a lawyer killed in a puzzling airplane crash, is recuperating after surgery for a miscarriage.

"She is doing marvelously well," William S. Hope, attorney for Baker Memorial Hospital, reported last night.

Mrs. Frank, 32, a former model from Galesburg, Ill., was brought here Friday after suffering the miscarriage aboard a southbound New York to Florida train. She underwent surgery Saturday.

Federal authorities are investigating a theory that her husband, insured for nearly a million dollars, may have taken a suicide bomb aboard a National Air Lines DC6B which crashed near Bolivia, N.C., Jan. 6. All 34 persons aboard were killed.

Hope said Mrs. Frank, whose two small children are with relatives in Florida, apparently underwent great strain in her Westport, Conn., home after the death of her 32-year-old lawyer-husband.

"When she arrived here she was very distraught," Hope said.

"For the first time in many days she is getting some rest. She has a completely different outlook than she had when she came to the hospital."

COMPROMISE SPEED

LOCKPORT, N.Y. (AP) — The speed limit on Old Niagara Road here depends on which side you're driving on.

Half the highway is within the Lockport city limits and has a 30 m.p.h. limit. But motorists headed west, on the Niagara County side of the road, may drive up to 50 m.p.h. Officials are considering a 40 m.p.h. compromise.

time to decide on which candidate to support.

Brown shopped around, visiting most of the hopefuls. Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, who seem likely to be favorite sons, got in some strategic licks that conceivably could lead to a second-place nomination.

It Works!

BELVIDERE, Ill. (AP) — A pedestrian on State street, Belvidere's busiest, expressed interest Saturday in an electric timer police had set up to catch speeders.

"Just stand right here and I'll give you a demonstration," Officer Ronald Carlson told him. "We'll stop the next car the timer shows is going over the limit."

Along came a car doing 41 m.p.h. in the 35-mile zone. Carlson stopped it. The driver was Art LePart, a fellow officer off duty. LePart was fined $6.

LONG OVERDUE

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Forty-one years ago Alfred C. Greeson received a hand wound and injuries to the eyes while serving with the Illinois 33rd Yellow Cross Division in the Meuse-Argonne offensive in France. His purple heart medal for war injuries arrived in the mail recently with no explanation for the delay.

Ike Blasts Critics of Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today that criticism of the administration's foreign aid program as a give-away plan indicates abysmal ignorance.

In an informal talk at a breakfast meeting of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards, the President also spoke out in defense of his plans for a balanced budget in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Eisenhower told his audience of about 1,000 at a downtown hotel they have an obligation to familiarize themselves with the issues which face the United States.

He spoke of the need to curb inflation and avoid debasement of the dollar.

Some individuals, the President went on, are "going along in a sort of cloud believing that one (political) party or another party has all the virtues and the others none."

He added that such people are "completely uninterested, particularly if registering or taking part in political action interferes with their golf or their shooting or any other recreation."

That remark from Eisenhower, who both golfs and hunts, drew a laugh.

As for the administration's controversial foreign aid program, the President noted that it often is criticized as a give-away plan.

"Nothing is more indicative of abysmal ignorance," Eisenhower said.

If the United States abandons the people of free nations which need help, Eisenhower said, "we are going to have to pay the bill" in currency costing much more than dollars.

'Bullet Bouncing' Threat Leads to Felony Charge

A Sterling man free under $1,000 bond was to appear in police court today, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Dwayne Hereford, 22, Saturday night is alleged to have entered the home of Lawrence Collins, 504 Monroe Ave., and threatened to "bounce a bullet" off Collins' head. Collins and Hereford had had words earlier in the day.

Police report that Hereford had a .22 caliber revolver in his pocket when arrested.

CONTENTED HEN

FARMER CITY, Ill. (AP) — A little black Bantam hen stood her ground against a railroad and won.

She decided to make her nest between the siding tracks of the Peoria & Eastern Railroad.

In a two-day period during her setting time, at least a dozen train cars were "switched" over the track above her. But she stayed.

Now John McKinley has his Bantam back, plus eight chicks, all that hatched.

Deaths and Funerals

Ex-Amboy Airman Killed in Ohio

AMBOY — Word has been received here of the death of A. C. Roger Baiko, 25, Yellow Springs, Ohio, formerly of Amboy, who was killed in an auto accident Friday afternoon.

Airman Baiko was on his way home from duty at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, when his car went out of control while passing another auto.

He was born Sept. 13, 1934, at Redwood Falls, Minn., son of John and Addie Flaherty Baiko. He attended high school in Amboy and entered the service in 1952.

Survivors include his wife, the former Barbara Joyce Pittman of Dixon, and three children, all of Yellow Springs, Ohio; his parents, Amboy; two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth (Lois) Koehler, Amboy, and Mrs. Stanley (Majorie) Ballard, Galva; and two grandmothers, Mrs. Will Flaherty, Amboy, and Mrs. Adolph Baiko, Redwood Falls, Minn.

Military services will be held at Wright Patterson Air Force Base this afternoon. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Hickey Funeral Home, Midlothian. Burial will be in Midlothian.

Rinehart Infant

Word has been received of the death on Jan. 17 of Mark Rinehart, 2 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Rinehart, Wellton, Ariz.

The baby is survived by his parents; a brother, Ricky; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rinehart, Wellton, formerly of Dixon, and the maternal grandfather, Henry R. Langford, Yuma, Ariz.

Mrs. Benton Tyreman

PAW PAW — Mrs. Josephine Lucinda Tyreman, 69, died Saturday in Sycamore Municipal Hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Tyreman was born Oct. 7, 1890, in Spring Valley, daughter of George and Margaret Shoemaker Byerhoff. She was married to Benton R. Tyreman June 30, 1921, in Paw Paw.

She was preceded in death by her parents and nine brothers and sisters.

Surviving are her husband, a son, Earl, Paw Paw, four sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Theresa Withey, Waterman; Mrs. Rosina Jacobson, Chicago; Mrs. Ella Fredericks, South Dakota; and Mrs. Rhoda Anderson, Aurora. The brothers are Obe Byerhoff, Shabbona, and Will Byerhoff, Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Tyreman formerly taught in the Paw Paw and Shabbona schools, and was chief operator of the Shabbona telephone office for several years. She was a member of the Past Matron of Pokonkah Lodge, OES, and of Paw Paw Methodist Church.

Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Paw Paw Methodist Church, with the Rev. Darla Cox, pastor of Paw Paw Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in Rosehill Cemetery, Shabbona. Friends may call tonight in Torman Funeral Home, Paw Paw.

Fire Calls

The Dixon Fire Department made a call at 6:22 p.m. Sunday. A car belonging to Pete Phalen 816 Galena Avenue had caught fire, probably caused by a cigarette lighter, according to a fireman. The back seat upholstery was damaged.

Phalen said the loss was covered by insurance.

Hit and Run Driver Fined

William Bearden, 34, 807 Peoria Ave., Saturday was fined $10 and costs for leaving the scene of an accident. He appeared before Justice of the Peace Edwin Merrick. Bearden allegedly drove a car which struck one belonging to Billie Bain, 321 College, Jan. 15. The Bain car was parked at the home address.

Susan Richardson

ROCHELLE — Susan Jean Richardson, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson, Steward, died Saturday in Dixon State School.

She was born June 22, 1953 in Rochelle, daughter of James and Carole Haigh Richardson.

Survivors are her parents; two brothers, Mark and Michael, both at home; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Haigh, all of Steward; and a great grandmother, Mrs. Frances Camp, also of Steward.

Private services were to be held at 2 p.m. today in the Unger Funeral Home with the Rev. William Coates, Steward Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Steward Cemetery.

Mrs. Alda C. Jones

PAW PAW — Mrs. Edna May Jones, 86, died Sunday in Mendota Community Hospital, where she was taken on Thursday. She had been a patient in Washburn Nursing Home for a year.

Mrs. Jones was born Oct. 21, 1873, in Jefferson County, daughter of John and Marie Tyler. She was married to Alda C. Jones Jan. 22, 1892, moving to Paw Paw 32 years ago.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two daughters and a son.

She is survived by four sons, John C., DeKalb, and Clyde, Fay and Carleton, all of Paw Paw. Also surviving are two half-brothers, Ashley Galbraith and William Martin, both of Mt. Vernon, 16 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Torman Funeral Home, Paw Paw, with the Rev. Norman D. Renn, pastor of Paw Paw Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Wyoming Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Joseph Clark

JOSEPH CLARK, 66, LaCrosse, Wis., native of Dixon, and partner in an electrical contracting firm, died last week at his home. Funeral services were held Jan. 23.

Clark was the brother of Mrs. Thomas Richards, 204 E. Everett Street.

Previous to going to LaCrosse in 1919, Clark had been associated with Illinois Utilities Co., and before that he was an electrical contractor in Mendota.

its first meeting Wednesday. Some reports indicate the panel will consider candidates among Chicago's 10,000-man police force for the department's top job before looking elsewhere. Mayor Daley reportedly favors this plan.

Phelan said that in the meantime he will devote his full time to cleaning up the scandal. He was deputy commissioner.

Weekend sessions brought to 51 the number of policemen from the Summerdale district who have been given lie detector tests. About 80 more face lie tests.

None Fail No one has been reported to have failed the tests.

Summerdale is the district where ex-convict Richard Morrison said he had police assistance in burglaries dating back to 1958.

A grand jury under the direction of State Atty. Benjamin Adamowski also is preparing to start an investigation of the police department. Although the full scope of its inquiry has not been revealed, the jury is expected to take up charges of political payoffs, favoritism, shakedowns and graft. Adamowski, a Democrat-turned-Republican, has announced that he will ask the jury to extend its session through February. Daley, a Democratic leader, has accused the state's attorney of playing politics with his investigation. Adamowski is seeking re-election.

Imposes Circumstances Gen. Maurice Challe, supreme French military commander in Algeria, clamped martial law in the capital and imposed censorship on all outgoing news dispatches. There were no reports of trouble outside the city of Algiers.

The Paris government banned public meetings throughout France and "all manifestations in public places" to prevent demonstrations by supporters of the Algerian rightwingers on the mainland.

The French rightists set up a three-man junta led by Pierre LaGalliere, a Parliament deputy, wearing the uniform of a reserve paratroop lieutenant, the bearded six-foot LaGalliere barricaded himself in the university with several hundred youthful followers. The two others in the junta—Joseph Ortiz, leader of the National French Front, and Jacques Sussini, leader of right-wing student organizations—seized a corner bank building.

In the band with Ortiz and Sussini were several uniformed officers of the Algerian home guard. They hoisted a red, white and blue tricolor flag in front of their make-shift barricade.

Johnson issued a weekend statement saying Gates had adopted a dangerous new method for estimating Soviet might.

Woman Charged In Accident

Rose Coss, 37, 718 Hennepin Ave., Sunday was arrested on a charge of careless driving after an accident at First Street and Galena Avenue.

Police said she drove south on Galena Avenue, changed lanes to avoid hitting a car stopped in front of her car. In changing lanes the Coss car collided with one driven by Cynthia M. Willis, Dixon State School.

Shoulder Pain Could Mean Lung Cancer

CHICAGO (AP) — Persistent shoulder pain with no obvious cause, a group of surgeons says, should warn doctors to check for possible cancer in the upper point of the lung.

A report by four Rockford, Ill., orthopaedic surgeons today said early curative surgery, removing only a segment of the lung, is possible in cases of high lung tumor, called apical lung cancer.

The usual symptoms of lung cancer — cough, blood, weakness, chest pain and weight loss — are usually absent when only the lung top is affected.

But a patient usually consults his family physician for relief of persistent discomfort which he feels is in the muscles, bones or joints of the shoulder, neck or arm.

The doctors, Paul E. Dee, R. Glenn Smith, Miles J. Gullickson and Charles S. Ballinger, reported at the 27th annual meeting of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

Dr. Harold O. Sofield of Oak Park, Ill., president of the academy, urged alliances with similar societies of other countries "so that more complete interchange of medical knowledge may result."

He suggested meetings with such organizations as the British Orthopaedic Assn., the Canadian Orthopaedic Assn., and the Latin American Society of Orthopaedic Surgery.

Isolation of Russian doctors, Dr. Sofield said, accounts for a lag in Soviet medicine.

Russian doctors, he said, are largely dependent upon medical journal reports for knowledge of new developments in their fields.

But, Dr. Sofield said, "Medical journals, even at the best, are considerably behind progressive work. Russia has developed few outstanding scientists in the medical field."

News Good, But Stocks Slide

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market has been turning a deaf ear of late to good business news. And as usual, when the price averages stumble, Wall Street is wondering out loud if the bull market is finally at or near its end. And if so, what was it that did the bull in?

The talk was rife after stock prices had hit their peak last Aug. 3 and then taken a long slide. But a year-end rally brought them back, and all seemed well again.

Then much of the zip went out of the market.

The Dow Jones industrial average started January at a record high of 686. After 15 trading days this month it closed Friday at 646, down 40 points in the three weeks.

The Associated Press price index of 60 stocks fell in 10 of the 15 trading days. A modest rally at the end of last week gave courage to the optimists who think the fall is leveling off, or may even be reversing itself. But the drop in the index for the month was eight points.

The news has been mostly good: corporate earnings up and 1960 profit prospects even better, dividend payments increasing, industrial production rising, retail trade on the upswing.

Why, then have investors been keeping their money in the bank, or taking it out of the market by selling their stocks?

Some caution that both the rise and the fall of the market in recent months has been largely selective — individual companies or industries getting the trader's attention rather than the stock list as a whole.

But others point out some specific factors that might be affecting investors' judgments.

Bond yields have risen so high they are more attractive as income, than stock dividends. This particularly appeals to the big investors, like the pension funds, or educational and financial institutions. It also appeals to those who live on fixed incomes.

President Eisenhower's plans for a balanced budget and his stressing of the need to stave off further inflation may have led some investors to lose interest in stocks as a hedge against a further inflation that may never come.

JUST TO MAKE SURE
ANSONIA, Conn. (AP)—The Board of Aldermen had approved nine of the mayor's appointments by the same 15-0 vote. Then when the mayor's choice for membership in the Department of Welfare was put up for vote, it was 14-1.

The dissenting alderman quickly explained he had nothing against the appointee. "I just wanted to make sure they were really counting the ballots," he said.

Every Tom, Dick and Harry Is Named John

WASHINGTON (AP)—You might cause quite a scramble if you barged into a meeting of the Atomic Energy Commission and yelled: "Hey, John, you're wanted on the phone."

It happens that all four members of the AEC have the same first name — John A. McCone, chairman; Dr. John H. Williams, scientist-member; John S. Graham and John F. Floberg.

The men who shape the nation's atomic destiny insist the situation causes no confusion.

McCone, being the boss, is always addressed at meetings as either "Mr. Chairman" or "Mr. McCone."

Floberg usually is called "Jack." Dr. Williams answers to either "Doc" or "Johnny."

"So you see," grins Commissioner Graham, "that leaves me as the only real John."

Chairman McCone is the only one who calls everyone else John.

Tom Thumb Rocket Motor Can Help in Space Probes

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A new Tom Thumb rocket motor looks good for vital tasks in exploring space, a physicist said today.

This midjet motor is no bigger than a man's thumb.

It works by shooting out electrified atoms and electrons at speeds of 22,000 miles an hour. This produces thrust, just as does the exhaust of chemical fuels to thrust up rockets.

The tiny engine is not strong enough to propel a rocket or satellite as its main engine.

Move it Around

But it could produce sideways, forward or backward thrust to control the position and direction of a satellite in space, said Dr. W. H. Bostick of Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, N.J.

Such controls can be important in keeping a weather-watcher or communications satellite in a precise orbit around the earth, or making it drop down lower, or fly up higher, to intercept a space ship, or refueling, or rescue missions. Or to keep a photographic eye pointing at the moon or distant stars for pictures.

Newly Developed

Bostick and associates developed a laboratory model of the midjet motor just last month. He described it today at opening sessions of the annual meeting of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences.

The midjet is a plasma rocket motor, he explained.

Electrical energy vaporizes the tip of a wire in the motor. Off come positively charged atoms (ions) and electrons, which fly out of the engine, producing thrust.

This engine can develop 41 per cent efficiency for the electrical energy consumed, Bostick said.

The energy is created in pulses. More wire can be thrust up as the tip is consumed.

In some respects, the plasma motor is simpler and lighter in weight than ion rocket engines, which produce thrust only from positively charged ions, the physicist said.

Upsets Plague the Top-Rated Teams

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A wave of upsets in weekend games toppled front-ranked Collinsville, Decatur and Bridgeport from the undefeated list and jumbled the Illinois prep basketball picture.

One of the season's biggest surprises occurred Saturday at Litchfield when a basket by Ron Scharf in the final seconds smashed Collinsville's 15-game streak 46-44.

The victory left Litchfield with a 13-2 mark, its only losses coming in two earlier season meetings with Collinsville.

After capturing 12 straight, the Decatur Reds bowed 85-80 Saturday to an underdog Canton team which had entered the contest with a mediocre 8-6 record.

Bridgeport's 16-game string came to an end in Flora's four-team tourney as the host school posted a 64-56 triumph. Flora dropped five of its first nine starts this season but now has won its last eight outings.

Peoria Richwoods, ranked seventh in the Associated Press poll with a 13-1 slate, received its second setback of the campaign Saturday, losing to Peoria Manual 52-44.

Two other ranking schools — Springfield and Pinckneyville — wrapped up tournament prizes and Galesburg gained its 12th win in 13 starts Saturday by tripping Thornton of Harvey 48-35.

Competing with the three other Springfield teams, the Senators picked up the title in holding off

Feltshans 42-40 for an over-all 14-2 mark.

Once-beaten Pinckneyville swept through the tournament at Salem with ease, trouncing Centralia 71-52 in the championship tilt. Since losing to Sparta Jan. 5, the Pincks have rolled up seven straight victories.

Of the top 15 rated teams, only Ottawa, Geneva and Argo own unbeaten charts. Ottawa and Geneva each is 17-0 and Argo is 12-0 following its 77-43 conquest of Homewood Saturday.

Carbondale Attucks, a small school with an impressive number of wins, encountered too tough an opponent Saturday and fell before Mount Vernon 86-63. It was the second defeat of the season for Attucks which had won 15 in a row.

The 15th ranked Kankakee Kays grabbed a 72-71 verdict over Schlarman of Danville, a strong contender in the eastern section. Herrin's Tigers recovering from a recent bad spell that brought two reverses, took the Pyramid Tourney title by whipping Marion 57-35.

NFL Debacle Getting Silly

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Efforts of National Football League owners to select a successor to the late Bert Bell have gone to the ridiculous side.

Not only can't the 12 owners agree on a boss, they even have trouble deciding what time to start disagreeing. After seven unsuccessful ballots Sunday—21 in all since voting began last Thursday—a motion was made to adjourn again.

"Move we reconvene at 5 p.m. tomorrow," said one owner who must have had visions of a day at Hialeah. Then came a few other motions, one suggesting an 8 a.m. starting time, another 11 a.m., still another 1 p.m. The latter, after some discussion, finally prevailed.

It was midnight when the sun-tanned executives came from the meeting room. Attorney Marshall Leahy of San Francisco still had seven votes—San Francisco, Los Angeles, Cleveland, Detroit, New York, Green Bay and the Chicago Cardinals. The "Solid Seven" refuses to budge. They won't even nominate a compromise candidate.

Lined up permanently as opposition is the "Fearless Four," —Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburgh and Baltimore. The minority group switched from time to time from Baltimore's general manager, Don Kelleit, to Acting Commissioner Austin H. Gensel. They switched just to break the monotony. The four votes, however, remain solid. They were last cast for Gensel on the 21st round.

Nine votes are necessary to elect a new commissioner.

Cards Better; Add Power, Pitching to Young Club

By SOLLY HEMUS
Manager, St. Louis Cardinals

(Editor's Note: This is the sixth in a series of pennant winning prospects written by team managers.)

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Four winter trades have made the St. Louis Cardinals a better and more interesting club for 1960. We have added power and helped our pitching.

Our pennant chances depend largely upon our young pitchers and upon the new players we have added in trades with the Giants, Phillies, Pirates and Orioles.

We helped our power from the right-handed side of the plate when we added Daryl Spencer and Bob Nieman. We added left-handed power by obtaining Carl Sawatski and Leon Wagner. We certainly improved our pitching by acquiring Ronnie Kline for our starting staff.

I do feel, however, we have hurt ourselves a little bit defensively by giving up Don Blasingame, whom I consider one of the top second basemen in the league, and Gino Cimoli, who is a fine outfielder and got a lot of big hits for us. However, I feel that Curt Flood, with a chance to play regularly in center field, will more than make up for Cimoli's loss and Alex Grammas will do

Big Ten To Vote On Pact

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten, indicating a desire to continue participation in the Rose Bowl football classic, has decided to take another vote on the matter.

The decision for another vote was made yesterday at a joint meeting of athletic directors and faculty representatives. The final vote will be cast at the spring meetings in Columbus, Ohio, March 3-5.

The fact that the post-season game question was revived indicated that the Big Ten is not ready to bow out of the Rose Bowl picture.

If the Western Conference had no desire to return to the Rose Bowl, it could let matters stand, since the 5-5 vote last spring killed the issue.

Circumstances, however, have changed. Last spring the Pacific Coast Conference was preparing to fold. Since the death of the PCC, the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities has been formed. The new league consists of California, UCLA, Southern California, Stanford and Washington.

Last spring matters were snarled on the West Coast and the Big Ten actually had no new contract to consider.

Since then, the AAWU has signed to provide the host school and has extended an invitation for the Big Ten to supply the opposition. In doing so, the AAWU also announced that it will not decide the method of selecting an opponent until March 31, 1960.

Even if the Big Ten should again vote against the Rose Bowl, there remains a clause permitting a member to play in the game if it receives an invitation. In this case, other conference members would not share in the receipts.

In other action yesterday, the athletic directors rejected a request by football coaches to return to unlimited substitution. The meetings will end today. Unfinished business includes deciding on a site for an outdoor track meet and also developing a uniform method of recording paid visits to campuses for prep athletes.

Venturi Clinches Crosby Clambake

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — After slogging through a wet but profitable victory in Bing Crosby's golfing show, Ken Venturi set his sights today on even higher stakes. The slender San Franciscan collected $5,350 in the crooner's 19th annual clambake, which ended Sunday in one of the worst storms ever to plague the event. Now the 28-year-old Venturi aims for the $100,000 Desert Classic at Palm Springs with its $12,000 top award two weeks hence.

He is skipping this week's $20,000 San Diego Open, where many of the touring pros go from Pebble Beach. The Crosby windup was probably enjoyed more by the national TV audience (ABC) than by the 8,000 who braved the elements here.

Big Ten Pattern Set; Kentucky Steams On

By The Associated Press
The Big Ten basketball pattern is set. Ohio State is well out in front and the rest of league has to see about trying to catch up.

Ranked fifth nationally, Ohio State scored its fourth conference victory without defeat by dumping Purdue 85-71 Saturday on the Boilermakers' home floor.

It was the first conference game which the Buckeyes have played away and it made little difference, Ohio State jumped in front early and stayed there the rest of the way.

Sophomores Terry Dischinger of Purdue and Jerry Lucas of Ohio State provided the only duel in the game. Dischinger led all scorers with 32 points while playing the entire game.

Lucas, who outbounded Dischinger 13-10 and sat out 8½ minutes of the game, topped Ohio State with 27 points.

While Ohio State was up to the task of winning away from home, its two closest rivals — Iowa and Minnesota — failed to do so much.

Iowa dropped a 90-80 decision at Michigan State and Minnesota was edged at Northwestern, 62-61, on Ralph Wells' free throw in the last nine seconds.

Iowa (4-2) retained second place but Minnesota (3-2) dropped into a third-place tie with Michigan State, Northwestern and idle Illinois.

Only one conference game is scheduled tonight with Minnesota at Iowa in what appears to be a battle for survival.

Despite Ohio State's presently comfortable lead, the Buckeyes still must play six of their last eight games on the road. This could spell trouble if any other teams could get hot.

Northwestern Coach Bill Rohr gave Minnesota an excellent chance for the title even after his Wildcats had beaten the Gophers.

"Minnesota still is in this Big Ten race," said Rohr. "I think Minnesota, Indiana and Michigan State all have a good chance of beating Ohio State, especially on their home floors."

This is the night college basket-

Robertson, have been floundering.

Cincinnati, coming off its Jan. 16 loss to Bradley, managed to win its 14th in 15 tries, 61-58 over Duquesne Saturday night but the Bearcats had one of their toughest struggles with Robertson limited to 13 points by the defensive play of George Brown.

Oscar, needing 46 points to break the all-time three-year scoring record of 2,538 points established by Furman's Frank Selvy in 1954, hit only 4 of 14 shots from the field. He is still 33 points away from breaking Selvy's mark and needs 82 to top the major school all-time career record of 2,587 set in four seasons by Wake Forest's Dickie Hemric.

Robertson gets one crack this week — against The Citadel at Cincinnati on Friday.

Meanwhile, second-ranked Bradley plays next at Marquette on Saturday in its second stop on a four-game road trip that began with an 86-65 victory over strong Notre Dame at Chicago Stadium Friday night. California (14-1) and West Virginia (15-1), both idle last week, have a pair of games—third-ranked Cal against Oregon Friday and Oregon State Saturday, and fourth-ranked West Virginia at Pitt Wednesday and William & Mary at Norfolk Saturday.

Big Ten activity will pick up Saturday with Michigan State at Ohio State in a regionally televised matinee, Michigan at Purdue and Wisconsin at Minnesota.

Illinois will engage Notre Dame in part of a Chicago Stadium doubleheader and Indiana will be at De Paul. Other non-conference games this week find North Dakota at Wisconsin Wednesday and Washington of St. Louis at Michigan Thursday.

Dukelets Lose Tilt

The Dukelet Frosh-Soph team, playing without regular Gary Flanagan, out of action because of that old flu bug, was on the short end of things Saturday night at Amboy as they were edged 36-33.

Amboy jumped to a 14-10 first period lead and that's the way it remained, barring a point the Dukes picked up in the third period, for the rest of the game.

The two teams were quite evenly matched as each took 41 shots but the Dukelets sank but 13, the Clippers 16. The Dukes were seven and seven at the free throw line and Amboy 4-10.

It was a sweet victory for Don Naffziger, frosh-soph coach at Amboy and former Duke star himself.

Eighth Triumph In Row for Quint

By JIM GLESSNER
Telegraph Sports Editor

Dixon's Dukes traveled to Amboy Saturday night and met a hopped-up Amboy Clipper team which almost pulled a colossal upset, but Duke height (and weight) combined for too much of a barrier and the Clippers fell 59-46.

It was the eighth straight win of the season for the Dukes and their ninth victory against four losses, adding impetus to the Duke drive which just might place them near the top of the NCIC at the end of the season.

The Dukes didn't play good ball Saturday night, but considering the circumstances, it is not a wonder. But their hustle and drive payed off for the victory and victories are what count in this game of basketball.

The first quarter started off with Wolfe and Phil Keeley connecting for two baskets each to put the Dukes ahead for the first period, 12-8. Both clubs were exceptionally cold from the field and the Dukes didn't hit one free throw out of four attempts.

In the second period the Clippers picked up steam, tied the score at 14 all and kept piling it on as they ran to a 29-22 halftime lead. The reason — Duke shots were not falling, free throws were being missed and some extraneous help from the floor.

In the third the Dukes came bouncing back and Rog Wolfe tied it at 32 all with a free throw. Phil Keeley made it 34-32 with a layup, brother Dave added a 10 footer to make it 36-33. Wolfe again drove in for a layup for a 38-33 tally and Phil added another ten footer just as the buzzer sounded ending the period with the score 40-34, Dixon.

In the fourth the Dukes kept adding to the score as the cheers from the Dixon rooting section swelled to outshine the din from the predominantly Amboy crowd. The Duke defense finally tightened in the fourth allowing only one man, Shelby Hinrichs, any field goals.

When the action was all over it was Dukes 59 and Clippers 46. As one thinks back, it was a good game to have under the belt. The Dukes met a different type of club and a different type of game at Amboy and it took a while to adjust to the situation. First there was the crowd noise, which deafened one in the small gym, and then there was the slam-bang style of play under the backboards, at times resembling football rather than basketball.

It is usually the policy of this scribe not to mention officiating of a game, that is, unless it puts a burr under his saddle. We'll have to say that the officials let the game get way out of hand under the boards and during floor play and at that we'll let it drop although, well...

This weekend the Dukes are aiming to make it ten in a row as they meet the Kewanee Boilermakers at Kewanee Friday night and the St. Thomas Tomies of Rockford invade Dukeland on Saturday night. Then the following weekend, it's Ottawa!

Civil Rights Bill Probably Will Be Moderate, Pass

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (CP)—Will Congress pass a civil rights bill this year? Most likely. What kind? A moderate one. Why moderate? Several reasons, all political.

For instance: The Democrats control Congress. If the Northern Democrats tried to ram through a tough bill, it would probably cause a party-splitting filibuster by Southern Democrats. In this election year the Democrats don't want splits.

Civil rights legislation is still a stinging issue, made so by the South's resistance to public school integration and its treatment of Negroes.

There is pressure for action — from organized labor, Negroes, and Northern liberals. The push in Congress for action is mainly from those in the liberal group and most of them are from industrial centers where Negro votes count.

No Action
Last year President Eisenhower proposed a seven-point program. No action. This year he still talks of wanting action. But he has been vague so far, has shown no signs of real fight on the issue.

Republicans are playing quiet now, letting Democrats fight among themselves.

But when the showdown comes Republicans, if they have any hope of denting Democratic control of Congress, will have to make some showing of lining up on the side of civil rights if they hope for any of that Northern Negro vote.

Then there are those Democrats considered presidential possibilities. Of necessity they must be self-conscious about the problem. None of them illustrates this more than Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats.

Predicts Passage
This week he confidently predicted a civil rights bill would be passed in 1960. As a man credited with big hopes for the presidency, Johnson can't afford to alienate his fellow Southern Democrats. He'll need their support going into the convention.

But the Southerners alone couldn't nominate him. He would need acceptance by the Northerners, particularly Northern liberals. And he is far from being the liberals' darling.

He would have a better claim on their attention if he could get a civil rights bill through. But it would be politically unwise for him to try to force a tough bill on the South.

Compromise Bill
The chances, therefore, are that he will steer through a bill not too harsh for the Southerners to digest, even though they preferred none at all, and although not strong enough to delight the liberals, at least some kind of bill which they could consider better than nothing.

Farm Group Wants Illinois Members

DES MOINES (AP) — The National Farmers Organization has announced a three-state membership drive which will be concentrated in Illinois.

Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., national president of the NFO, said the drive will coincide with the organization's program to encourage farmers to withhold commodities from market with the aim of stabilizing agricultural prices.

Staley said most NFO members come from Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri. New members will be sought in Michigan, Indiana and especially Illinois, he said.

Staley said the NFO has staged several farm withholding actions in the past to sound out farm support and plans another soon.

His remarks were made Saturday at the Iowa meeting of the NFO, which was attended by an estimated 1,200 farmers from the state.

Novel Alibi For Speeding

CENTRAL FALLS, R.I. (AP)—Bertrand R. Duhamel, 22, Woonsocket, had a novel alibi in District Court Sunday where he appeared for driving 100 miles an hour.

He told the court he was driving with the girl he loves when a rival for her affections pulled up in front of them and drove at 10 miles an hour.

Duhamel said he became infuriated and put on a burst of speed, just when state troopers appeared. He was fined $10.

WALLABY LULLABIES
JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — A wallaby is an undersized kangaroo which, when unpouched and rejected by his mother, is a most pathetic figure indeed.

One such animal was rejected at the Bronx (N.Y.) zoo recently but now is as happy as any well-adjusted wallaby could hope to be — thanks to Mrs. Joseph Davis.

Mrs. Davis knitted a wool pouch for the animal, bottle feeds it every two hours and keeps it hung in the bathroom.

Gas Fumes Nearly Kill Family of 6

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — A telephone call was credited with saving a family of six from serious illness and possible death Sunday.

William E. Johnson, 29, awoke feeling ill. He discovered his wife and their four children also had been stricken. Mrs. Johnson, 29, was unconscious.

Johnson staggered to a telephone to call his wife's mother, Mrs. O. E. Godwin. She and her brother-in-law J. B. Godwin, hurried to the Johnson home and managed to get them outside and call firemen and ambulances.

District Fire Chief Ben Dancy said the family became ill on gas fumes due to improper combustion of the fuel in a floor furnace.

Afghanistan, buffer nation between Soviet Russia and Pakistan, has a population of about 12 million.

Touhy Pal's Wife Dies Mysteriously

CHICAGO (AP) — The answer to the mysterious injuries suffered by Mrs. Genevieve Miller, wife of the retired police sergeant who was with Roger Touhy the night Touhy was slain, apparently died with her Saturday at Loretto Hospital.

Mrs. Miller, 54, was found lying unconscious on the floor of her locked West Side apartment Jan. 10. Her skull was fractured and she had suffered multiple bruises.

Her husband, Walter, who was seriously injured by the shotgun blasts that killed Touhy Dec. 16, said he thinks his wife was beaten by Touhy's assassins.

A hospital spokesman said Mrs. Miller might have suffered the injuries in a fall after a stroke. Mrs. Miller died without regaining consciousness. She was found by her son. Her husband, fearing for his life, was hiding out and was not at home.

Boy Scout Knows Lesson; Rescues Two

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Two Tulsa youngsters are pretty happy that Howard White, 12, knew his Boy Scout lessons.

Douglas Poplin, 7, and David Staley, 9, slipped through ice on a city park pond Sunday and were struggling in the water.

White saw their plight, found a long pole and slid onto the ice on his stomach. The youngsters held the pole until passers-by rescued them with a rope.

White's father, Robert Lloyd White, is a scoutmaster.

Pennsylvania Democrats Pick Delegates

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's Democratic party was to pick the nation's first large block of presidential convention delegates today. They most likely will be uncommitted.

The 42 delegates-at-large elected by the Democratic State Committee will have half a vote each at the July convention in Los Angeles.

The public will choose 120 district delegates—each with half a vote—at the April 26 primary election, thus completing the state's 81-vote delegation, third largest in the nation.

Only Alaska has chosen its convention delegates.

Gov. David L. Lawrence, one of the country's most powerful Democrats, was certain to get the chairmanship of the delegation.

The 70-year-old governor was expected to tell the delegates not to commit themselves. His aides have said he wants the delegation free to maneuver at the convention.

Only one man in line for a delegate-at-large post has come out publicly for a presidential hopeful. House Speaker H. G. Andrews is for Sen. John F. Kennedy (Mass.).

The governor, also a Democratic national committeeman, reportedly favors either Sen. Stuart Symington (Mo.) or Adlai Stevenson.

Lawrence will meet Saturday night with Symington and former President Harry S. Truman in Springfield, Mo. He will address a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner there.

He has met with supporters of Kennedy and Sen. Hubert Humphrey (Minn.). By report, he refused to back either man.

The Republican State Committee will choose its delegates-at-large in March.

Gets Love Letter After 12 Years

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Mrs. Frank Siciliano Jr. got a love letter from Los Angeles the other day. She was thrilled. Her husband? Oh, he was, too.

The letter was from him. He wrote it to her 12 years ago, two years before they got married, when he was working in Los Angeles.

Nobody could figure out exactly where that missive had been since it was sent, postmarked Sept. 5, 1947.

YOUR OPEN WINDOW
is your newspaper!

Your newspaper is like a window . . . with a view as wide as the world, and as far into the future as the mind of man can be projected. It is the kind of window that gives you a close-up look at the most distant events and developments . . . a window that extends the horizons of your knowledge even into the realm of outer space, now at long last revealing its secrets.

Some of the things that you see through your newspaper "window" are on the lighter side . . . amusing, entertaining. Others bear directly on your day-to-day life and on the future of yourself and your family. Both sides of the news are presented promptly, accurately and completely in your newspaper. Both sharpen your awareness of the world in which you live.

Your newspaper is all things to all men and all women. In its pages, each can find the latest information on what interests him most. It covers the community, county, state, nation and world. It deals with the economy, politics, finance . . . education and science . . . fashions and sports. It may be read at any hour of the day or night that suits you . . . may be read and reread . . . referred back to . . . clipped or saved. The window that it opens on your world is always open!

DOTTIE DIXON'S DIARY

JOHN SHOEMAKER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Shoemaker Jr., Eldena, has enlisted in the Air Force for four years, and is receiving his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex. He was graduated from Amboy High School in 1959. His address is as follows: A.B. John F. Shoemaker, AF 16646813, Flight 67, Box 1524, Lackland Air Force Base, Tex.

If you've traveled or entertained recently, why not call Dottie Dixon and give her the item? Phone AT 2-1111.

A/2C Orville E. Shoemaker Jr., has been in the Air Force for 16 months, and is stationed at Homestead, Fla.

Dale Reis, Los Angeles, Calif., a former Dixonite, spent Friday with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Reis, 839 S. Forest Dr.

Mrs. Roxy Snyder, Regent of Women of the Moose, was hostess last Wednesday evening in her home at 521 1/2 E. Chamberlin St., to members of the Academy of Friendship.

Mrs. John Paul, Camp LeJeune, N. C., left by air Sunday and has arrived in Rota, Spain, to be

Adenauer Home

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer came home today from what he described a very successful visit to Rome.

The 84-year-old German leader reached Rome Wednesday. Italians generally viewed his trip as part of a campaign for support for a firm stand against any compromise on the German question at the forthcoming East-West summit meeting.

with her husband, Marine Lt. Col. John F. Paul, who was injured in an auto accident Friday. His condition has now been reported as critical.

Weekend Fires Kill At Least 20

By The Associated Press. More than 20 persons, most of them children, perished in fires scattered across the country Sunday.

Six persons, all Negroes, burned to death when flames enveloped a farm house near Manning, S. C. Three other persons were burned, two critically, in that fire. The fire started when gasoline spilled from a can and ran into an open fire.

The room, crowded with 20 persons at a social gathering, was quickly enveloped in flames.

At Tompkinsville, Ky., six children of one Negro family were killed when fire swept a home. The parents escaped with one child. An eighth child was away from home.

Four children died in a fire at a Philadelphia home. The parents and one child were saved.

At Dallas, Tex., three children burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home.

A boy, 19, and a girl, 15, were found dead in the burned wreckage of an auto near Hardwick, Vt. Police believed they were overcome by carbon monoxide before an unexplained fire broke out.

Misunderstanding

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev says the border dispute between India and Red China is "due to some misunderstanding," the Indian Communist weekly New Age reported today.

Khrushchev said neither India nor Red China "pursued aggressive aims or meant to grab each others territory. . . . It is necessary to continue efforts to remove whatever misunderstandings may have arisen and restore good and friendly relations between the two countries."

Peron to Spain

CIUDAD, TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (P) — Juan Peron, Argentina's former dictator, today left the Dominican Republic, where he has been living in exile, en route to Spain by chartered plane. Peron issued a press statement Sunday promising to continue directing the fight of the Peronista party in Argentina. Peron said he was going to Spain to settle some private matters and planned to return to the Dominican Republic soon.

Bishop to Quit

BERLIN (P)—Bishop Otto Dibelius, under heavy fire from the Communists, announced today he will retire in 1961.

The head of the Lutheran Church in Germany will be 80 years old in May. East German Communists have been attacking him heavily for his stand that a good Christian need not obey all the laws proclaimed in East Germany.

Sen. Kennedy Makes Pitch For Delegates

NASHUA, N.H. (P) — With pledges of solid support from all the New England states at the Democratic National Convention in July, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) made his first pitch today to clinch these delegates.

He has a round of speeches, receptions, rallies and handshaking tours of factories here and in Manchester for his one-day stand in New Hampshire.

New Hampshire has only 11 votes in the national convention. The campaign here is important since New Hampshire's March 8 primary is the first in the nation. Party leaders from all six New England states assured Sen. Kennedy Sunday night at a Boston dinner that he will have a solid New England block of 114 delegates when he goes to Los Angeles in July.

Kennedy was handed a check for $50,000—part of the net proceeds of a record $74,000 raised by Massachusetts' Jefferson-Jackson Committee at a $100 per plate affair.

Kennedy said the contribution

Snow Hampers Body Removal From Navy Plane

WASHINGTON (P) — A heavy snowfall has hampered efforts of search parties to reach the bodies of 16 Navy men—two from Illinois — killed when their plane crashed Tuesday near Adana, Turkey.

The Navy announced Wednesday that all aboard were killed will come in handy as he goes across the country in the next few months. He said he will enter five of six state primaries in his quest for delegates in a campaign he said is aimed to give the people in the Democratic party an opportunity to participate in the selection of their candidate—"instead of having a nominee handed to them."

Kennedy said it is the function and the duty of the Democratic party to provide the leadership the United States will need in the next decade.

Kennedy said if the Republicans elect Richard M. Nixon as the next president, "history shows he is likely to be reelected in 1964—and I'm not prepared to turn the country over to that kind of leadership for the next decade."

Rescue 10 From Flooded Cavern

WELLS, England (P)—Ten young cave explorers were rescued today after being trapped by flood waters in a cavern. The explorers were cut off for eight hours in a series of underground caves and tunnels known as St. Outhbert's Swallet just outside the Somerset village of Pridy. Torrential rain flooded an underground stream flowing through the caves.

'60 CHEVY! ONLY WAY YOU CAN BUY A CAR FOR LESS IS TO BUY A LOT LESS CAR!

THRIFTIEST 6 IN ANY FULL-SIZE CAR—Chevy's Hi-Thrift 6 is the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the latest Mobilgas Economy Run—more than any other full-size car.

NEW ECONOMY TURBO-FIRE V8—Here's a V8 with the "git" Chevy's famous for—plus a new economy-contoured camshaft and other refinements that get up to 10% more miles on a gallon of regular.

EASIER-TO-LOAD LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT—The trunk sill is lower and the lid opening is more than a foot and a half wider than Chevy's nearest competitor's. There's over 20% more usable space.

MORE ROOM WHERE YOU WANT MORE ROOM—Chevy's trimmed down transmission tunnel (25% smaller) gives you more foot room. You also get more head and hip room than in any other 2- or 4-door sedans in the field.

WIDEST CHOICE OF POWER TEAMS—A choice of 24 engine-transmission teams in all—to satisfy the most finicky driving foot. There are seven engines with output all the way up to 335 h.p. and five silk-smooth transmissions.

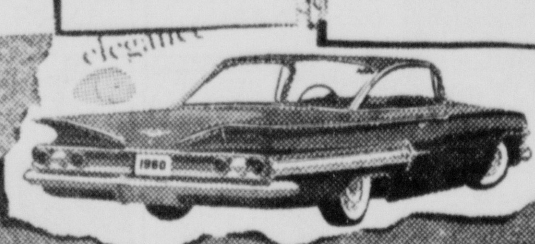

EXTRA CONVENIENCES OF BODY BY FISHER—No other car in Chevy's field gives you crank-operated ventilators, Safety Plate Glass all around and dozens of other Fisher Body refinements.

CHEVY SETS THE PACE WITH LOWER PRICES—All Bel Air and Impala V8's are lower priced, as are many options. Example: a Bel Air V8 sedan with Turboglide, de luxe heater and push-button radio lists at $65.30 less for '60.

QUICKER STOPPING BRAKES—Long-lived bonded-lining brakes with larger front-wheel cylinders for '60 give you quicker, surer stops with less pedal pressure.

SOFTER, MORE SILENT RIDE—Chevy's the only leading low-priced car that gentles the bumps with coil springs at all four wheels. Noise and vibration are filtered to the vanishing point by new body mounts.

NOT CHANGE FOR CHANGE'S SAKE, BUT FOR YOURS—There's only one person we consider when we make a change—and that's you. That's why we don't think you'll find anything more to your liking at anything like the price.

The more you look around the more you'll find to convince you that no other low-priced car has so much to show for your money as this new Chevrolet. Here's the kind of styling sophistication and subtle detail that only Fisher Body craftsmanship can create. Here's the kind of Full Coil comfort that neither of the other two leading low-priced cars—and only some of the smoothest riding higher priced ones—build into their suspension systems. Here's more room inside (where you want it) without an inch more outside (where you don't want it). And with all these advances Chevy has managed to hold the price line! Your dealer will be delighted to fill you in on all the facts.
